need help with the cost of living?

Everyone is experiencing higher prices from energy and transport to food and housing. If you're finding it hard to cope, then the City of Wolverhampton Council and partners are here to help and support you through the cost of living crisis. Come and talk to us face to face at our next event

It's important to access any extra support to which you're entitled, which could be financial like Universal Credit and Council Tax support or practical advice to budget better or help reduce costs and bills.

Between us and our partners across the city, we have many different ways to help. One of those is events across the city with a range of expert advice in person from our partners... come and see us at the next cost of living event:
